

2022 NOAH Arts in Health Awards Program Call for Entries

Deadline for receipt of submissions: September 2, 2022

Notification: Week of September 19, 2022

Awards Announcement: 2022 NOAHCON on November 2-3 and November 15, 2022

The National Organization for Arts in Health is proud to announce the 4th Annual International Arts in Health Awards Program.

The awards are open to NOAH members: artists working in all media, or arts in health programs in community or clinical settings, who demonstrate an arts project or initiative in a health setting that has measurably improved the health or wellbeing of the intended population. Any individual or group may nominate themselves or another party. These awards are open to individuals and institutions in both the US and internationally.

Proposals will be evaluated by a panel of judges, representing the NOAH Board of Directors and their Ambassadors, among others. Awards will be announced and presented at the NOAH conference this November. To learn more about the awards and apply, visit <http://thenoah.net/2022-noah-arts-in-health-awards/>. Please direct any questions to info@thenoah.net.

Categories for Recognition:

Arts Advancing Social Justice: Recognition in this awards category for demonstrating the positive impact of the art project on socioeconomically and racially oppressed communities.

Arts Building Resilience: Recognition in this awards category for demonstrating the efficacy of the arts in combating healthcare provider and family caregiver burnout and cultivating resiliency.

Arts for Innovation: Recognition in this awards category for showcasing a project that has positively impacted target populations through use of media, technology, or creative programming.

The Awards:

Winners in each category will receive a free conference registration and a $500.00 award. Winners will have the opportunity to present their art program or project at the conference. In addition, a profile on the artist/institution and their work will be published on the NOAH website.

To Enter/Eligibility:

- Current NOAH Board members are ineligible to apply.
- Applicant must be a current NOAH member.
- Artist must have client approval to enter.
- Artist must represent that the work entered is theirs and free from any other copyright or ownership.
- Group entries are encouraged under one entry fee.
- Any work that is created solely for the purpose of entering this competition is not eligible.

- Only artwork or projects that were installed in the past three years are eligible.
- A complete application form including an entry fee of $75 U.S. per entry must be submitted for consideration.

Creative Credits:

- All creative credits must be input prior to finalizing entries. If a credit field does not apply, it must be left blank (do not populate with dashes, N/A, etc).
- Company City should be input when relevant.
- Credits should be checked carefully prior to finalizing as these credits will appear on our website, in press releases and all publicity material.
- Once an Entry is finalized changes to the credits will incur a USD $100 fee per entry.
- If no credits are input, and an entrant wishes to add creative credits after awards are announced, there will be a USD $200 fee.

When Entering a Case Study:

- The case study that is submitted for judging must clearly show the work in-situ.
- The presentation should clearly demonstrate the concept and show the key elements through which the core idea has been expressed.
- Must not exceed 3 minutes.
- Narration must be in English or have English subtitles.
- It is mandatory that the Case Studies use Royalty-Free music.
